

156 INDICTED IN PROHIBITION DRIVE

MEETINGS ARE ARRANGED FOR FARM BUREAU

Feeders, Corn Growers and Truck Growers To Have Important Meets.

Three meetings which are of vast interest to Pickaway-co farmers have been scheduled by County Farm Agent H. Stanley Lewis, the first of which will be held here Thursday.

Arrangements for the annual Pickaway-co steer feeders tour will be completed during the feeder school which is to be held Thursday, in the Farm Bureau home from 1:30 to 3 p. m. This feeder school is the third of a series which has been conducted in the interest of assisting Pickaway cattle feeders to increase their returns from cattle feeding enterprises. C. R.
Arnold, of the rural economics department of O. S. U. will present the beef cattle outlook, comparing the number of cattle on feed this year with that of last year. Mr.
Arnold will also discuss those factors which contribute to market fluctuations.

Bob Martin, cattle salesman for the Buffalo producers cooperative commission association will discuss the type of cattle which the market seeks. Conditions of the market today, as compared to last year. Is there a period of the year in which one class of cattle will sell to an advantage over another class?

Any cattle feeder interested in this school is welcome to attend and take part in the discussions.
A county wide corn growers meeting has been arranged for Thursday, Feb. 20, from 10 a. m. until 3 p. m. This school will be held at the Farm Bureau office in Circleville.

Pickaway-co farmers derive eight per cent of their farm income from corn. The experiences of the past year indicate the fact that Pickaway-co farmers will be warranted in paying some special attention to seed corn, preparation of soil for the crop and fertilization, if they are anxious to insure their 1930 corn crop returns on a profitable basis.

Dr. J. B. Park of the crops department of Ohio State University will discuss corn breeding. The selection of varieties, the control of diseases, the importance of good seed, etc.

J. A. Slipper, soils specialist of Ohio State University will discuss the preparation of the seed bed, depth of planting, rate of planting, drilled against checked corn, method of fertilizing the crop, etc.

The seed corn situation should be a pertinent part of the discussion throughout this program.
Corn growers throughout the county will be pleased to take advantage of this type of meeting and are invited to attend the school and participate in the discussions.

TRUCK GROWERS

Pickaway-co truck growers and gardeners will hold a vegetable gardeners school at the Pickaway-co Farm Bureau home, on Tuesday, February 18. The following program will be conducted in this school.

10 a. m. Growing Good Plants—
E. R. Lancashire, Horticulture
Dept., Ohio State University.

11 a. m. Controlling Vegetable Crop Insects—M. P. Jones, Entomologist, Ohio State University.

1 p. m. Vegetable Diseases and Their Control—A. L. Piersdoff, Plant Pathologist, Ohio State University.

2 p. m. Profitable Potato Production—E. S. Tussing, Prof. Horticultural Dept., Ohio State University.

Proximity to markets and the warm early soils afforded throughout the Scioto Valley are both assets to the truck and market gardeners, as well as the farmer who is producing vegetable crops under contract for the Canning Industries.

Insect control, disease control, fertilization and selection of varieties are each factors that must be met in the production of economic yields and profitable returns, no matter which phase of gardening the producer may wish to follow.

Any trucker, gardener, Melon grower or Potato producer will find a profitable day awaiting him if he will arrange to attend this Vegetable Growers School. Everyone interested is welcome and invited to take advantage of the program.

Attorney Lemuel Weldon of Cincinnati has terminated a recent short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Weldon of W. Union-st.

chief of cavalry, U. S. Army chosen by President Hoover as Police Commissioner of Washington, D. C., in his endeavor to make the nation's capital the model city.

the city's police, fire and traffic

PICKAWAY RED CROSS REPORT

Roll Call In County Amounts To $1,167.45 With Circleville Leading.

Pickaway-co chapter, American Red Cross, desires to express its appreciation to Frank A. Lynch, Roll Call chairman, his assistant chairmen, the army of solicitors and the newspaper, relative to their achievements in making the 13th annual Roll Call the success it was.

The Roll Call amounted to $1, 167.45. Of this amount the National chapter received $375.00 and the local chapters $792.45. The amounts collected in Circleville and various townships are as follows:

- Circleville City, $811.45.
- Circleville-twp, $1.00.
- Darby-twp, $7.75.
- Williamsport and Deer Creek-twp, $146.00.
- Ashville, $72.10.
- Harrison-twp, $5.00.
- Jackson-twp, $11.00.
- Monroe-twp, $26.00.
- Muhlenberg-twp, $4.00.
- New Holland, $34.65.
- Pickaway-twp, $23.50.
- Salt Creek-twp, $6.00.
- Walnut-twp, $16.00.
- Washington-twp, $3.00.

It is perhaps unfortunate that the great mass of the public do
American Red Cross and especially that of the local chapter. Its work is composed of various services for the betterment of mankind, especially for the veterans of all wars and their dependents.
It assists in straightening out the home problems, getting evidence in proper form and filing claims for compensation, obtains necessary hospital treatment and assistance in many other ways to rehabilitate themselves. A health program is an essential principal of the Red Cross.

To those who responded so generously and promptly the chapter extends its grateful thanks. It undoubtedly will be an incentive to others to join the good work in future appeals.

ADMIT THEFT, GIVEN TERMS

Three Columbus Alleged Sheep Thieves To Be Taken To Cincinnati.

William Amos, Homer Jacobs
and William Gaines, Columbus youths, who were arrested following the theft of sheep from two Pickaway-co farmers, pleaded guilty to a petit larceny indictment returned against them by the January grand jury, and were each sentenced to the Cincinnati workhouse for 30 days and fined $200 by Common Pleas Judge J.
W. Adkins.

The three youths were alleged to have stolen sheep and taken them to Chillicothe where they tried to sell them. When the proprietor of a slaughter house there became suspicious he called police who arrested two of the youths. Amos was picked up later in Lancaster and jailed under the same charge.

SUBMARINE IS ATTACKED AT NAVAL MEET

Delegates Hold Plenary Meet-
Men Present.

By HARRY R. FLORY
LONDON, Feb. 11.—The reputation of the submarine as anything but a vicious instrument of war appeared to have been ruined for all time today when American and British delegates to the five-power naval disarmament conference raked it from stem to stern with a devastating barrage of hostile criticism.

From sleek prow to submerged rudder the undersea boat was castigated not only as an inhuman and ruthless weapon of warfare, but also as a positive menace to the crew assigned to operate it.
Even Japan, which favors retention of the submarine, was forced to admit that during the last war unlimited submarine warfare had brought about maritime tactics that disgusted the entire world.

Abolition of the submarine was the first question taken up by the conference, meeting in plenary session at St. James' Palace. It was the fourth time the parley had assembled in full session since the conference opened with pomp and pageantry in the House of Lords just three weeks ago.

The meeting was opened by Prime Minister J. Ramsay Macdonald at 11:05 a. m. (6:05 a. m.
Eastern Standard time.) He announced that the first committee of the conference would shortly be able to announce a solution of the global and categorical limitations questions.

He then called upon A. V. Alexander, British first lord of the admiralty, to set forth Britain's views regarding submarines. The first lord lost no time about launching into the subject, and almost his first words were a bitter and complete indictment of undersea craft.

ALEXANDER TALKS
"Attention of these vessels," Alexander declared "will always constitute the danger of their employment in the hands of an unscrupulous enemy and will lead to methods of attack which civilized nations regard with horror."

Admitting that in the last war Britain had found it impossible to maintain submarines in defensive positions solely, he put forward an unqualified demand for their complete abolition, stating that they constituted a definite menace even to the health and safety of the crews which operate them.

Speaking on behalf of the United States, Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson then put forward an urgent plea for submarine abolition, leaving no alternative to removing undersea craft entirely from the fleets of the world.
Denying the contention that submarines were purely defensive arms, he declared that to sanction their use would be a "contradiction of the purposes for which we have met."

"The essential objection of the submarine," he said, "is that it is a weapon particularly susceptible to abuse, that it is susceptible of use against merchant ships in a way that violates alike the laws of war and the dictates of humanity."

Submarines during the last war,
the American chief delegate declared, "revolted the conscience of the world," and were directly responsible for having forced the

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN COLUMBUS

Mrs. Anna Finkle, Sister-in-
Law of Mrs. Crissinger
Taken Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Finkle, aged 84, a former resident of Circleville, died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Grace Finkle, in Columbus. Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the A. J.
Held Co. chapel.

Mrs. Finkle's sister-in-law of Mrs. Frances Crissinger of W.
Main-st. and an aunt of Ike Crissinger, both of whom will attend the funeral Tuesday. W. C.
Finkel, Columbus, and John R.
Finkel, Dayton, are brother P. C.
Crissinger and a sister also survive.
Burial will be in Union cemetery.

Birthday of Great Inventor

February 11, the birthday of Thomas Edison, world-famed inventor, may see the reunion of three old friends, Henry Ford, Thomas Edison and Harvey Firestone. The three friends, who have always felicitated one another on their different achievements through life, are pictured together as they appeared February 11, 1929, when Thomas Edison celebrated his eighty-second birthday.

JOKER'S JUBILEE PRACTICES PREDICT FINE PERFORMANCE

Joker's Jubilee rehearsals predict that the performance of Wednesday evening at the high school will be replete with tunes you'll want to hear again. The practiced efforts of 35 trained musicians account for that. The determined air of the speaking cast "to put this thing over right" lends double assurance to the fact already known to those who have seen rehearsals; namely, "We of the audience certainly are going to get our quarter's worth." There are reasons for this.

As we might say to the judge,
"It all started this way." A group of young people had played almost enough acts to become active members of Circleville's troupe of National Thespians. They coveted the honor of belonging to this largest and highest rated school dramatic society. They proposed this two act Jubilee as a final demonstration. The troupe director granted their request on condition they produce a show as good as any of equal length within the territory of the honor society. On Wednesday night's presentation rests their hopes for membership in this organization.
You of the audience will realize how diligently they have worked should you see them reach their goal shortly after 10 that night.

TWO STARS ILL
Two new members with minor roles are pleased that the "old hands" trained in Thespian reserved their seats. The reservation chart is now open at Wilder's Drug Store. It tempts you with many choice seats. Reservations cost not a cent.

Methodist Minister At South
Bloomfield Entertains
Kiwanis Club.

The Circleville Kiwanis club had one of its most interesting meetings Monday evening when Rev.
William Alexander, pastor of the Methodist church at South Bloomfield, told the club of his world travels and his experiences. Never in the short history of the Kiwanis club has so much merriment prevailed as did Monday evening when Alexander, in his own interesting way told of his great experiences.
He started at his home in England and went down the African coast to Cape Horn, telling of his trip. Then he told of the many incidents which occurred in his life in Australia and of the customs there. He told of New Zealand and of his trip through the Panama Canal, up the Atlantic coast to Newport News, where he said he obtained his first glimpse of the United States.

He told of his experiences with the American people and of the differences for them. He said that his great humor was turned out being was turned out being was a frolic.
Alexander's ability as a speaker made him an asset to the club as an speaker.
Frank Wharton, A. J. Held and E. F. Schlegel were the guests of the evening.

'Jackie,' Pride Of Mr. and Mrs. Carle, Is Killed

A jocular little terrier dog, who night by an automobile. "Jackie," while very small in size, was full in courage and ears and without wavering a signal of war would attack animals three times his size and try to pick a fight.

He had one fear however and that was the Victor talking stands in front of the music store. "Jackie" was to have circled around this pamacho animal running out the street to avoid any close contact with "His Master's Voice."

CONFIRMATION OF C. HUGHES IS DEFERRED

Sen. Cole Blease Demands Time To Investigate Into Taft's Health.

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Confirmation of Charles Evans Hughes as chief justice of the United States was being held up in the senate today pending an inquiry by Senator Cole Blease (D)
of S. C., into the health of William Howard Taft, who resigned the high post last week.

Blease announced he would fight Hughes' confirmation and for the return of Taft to the supreme court if his inquiry showed the former president's health would allow him to resume his judicial robes. Blease initiated the inquiry after blocking confirmation of Hughes.

PROPOSES FIGHT

"I want to learn if there is any hope of Mr. Taft's permanent recovery," said Blease. "If there's no hope of him going back to the bench, there's no use of making any fight, because I have nothing against Mr. Hughes. I only think my friend, Mr. Taft, was badly treated. If his health will let him return, I propose to make a real fight in the senate to put him back."

"I think his illness is exaggerated. His doctor's reports in the last few days indicate he's getting along very well and that he never was as sick as it was claimed. I want to know the truth."
Blease was to confer with Dr.
Francis R. Hagner, Taft's physician. It appeared certain Hagner would tell him Taft can no longer serve upon the federal bench without endangering his life. Information was obtained by International News Service last week that Taft's son and daughter influenced his resignation solely in the hope of prolonging his life.

firmation by Senator George W.
Norris (R) of Neb., insurgent leader, and Henry L. Doherty, utilities magnate, appeared to have gathered but few converts.
An overwhelming majority of the senate, while not particularly friendly to Hughes will favor his confirmation because of his outstanding brilliance as a lawyer, and his great success at the bar.

ADMIT BRILLIANCE

Both Norris and Doherty paid tribute to his legal brilliance.
"They attacked his appointment on a different ground," Doherty said Hughes was "prejudiced" on many great questions and declared his appointment was engineered by a
"political clique" that sought to rule the country. Norris said his appointment was a "political football" which detracted from the high ideals of the supreme court.
He added that no man who resigns from the supreme court to seek political and financial gains, should ever be reappointed.

Internationally Known Author Returns to U. S.

Maurice Dekobra, world famed author, has returned to the United States from a triumphal journey through Europe. The noted author has several new books which are graphic descriptions of the countries and people he has met in his extensive travels. One of the reasons of Mr. Dekobra's successes as an author is his exactitude of details, and his rule never to describe a country, its people or its morals without having made a personal observation of them.

Whaler In Search of Missing Vessel Reports.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—After two weeks' silence, the missing steamship William Scoresby with Captain Sir Herbert Wilkins and three members of the Wilkins Antarctic exploration party aboard, has been heard from, according to a copyrighted dispatch to the New York American sent today from Deception Island.

The dispatch said that the base radio station at the island had received a message from one of the whalers searching the vast ice see for the missing ship, stating the Scoresby had been heard from.
No details of the location of the missing vessel were given.

At the base station plans were made at once to attempt to communicate with the Scoresby by radio. It was presumed Sir Herbert and his party are safe on board the vessel, in which they sailed to find a taking-off site for the explorer's proposed Ross Sea flight over the Polar cap.

First attempts to communicate with the Scoresby by radio today were unsuccessful the dispatch stated.

LAURELVILLE FARMER DIES

Paralysis After Month's Illness Fatal To Isaac V.
Anderson Tuesday.

Isaac Valentine Anderson, aged 70, widely known and highly respected farmer of Laurelville, died Monday at 8:05 p. m. following an illness of one month from paralysis. He was born in Salt-creek-twp, March 27, 1860, and was the son of Jefferson and Barbara Bowman Anderson.

Mr. Anderson's wife, Mary Hines Anderson, preceded him in death 10 years ago. He is survived by one son, William Ross Anderson, two daughters, Mrs.
Bertha Noble and Miss Cora Anderson, all of near Laurelville.

Services will be conducted by Rev. Woodard at the Bethany church, four miles north of Laurelville, Wednesday at 1 p. m. Burial in the Bethany cemetery will be in charge of H. E. Defenbaugh and Sons of Dayton.

31 BUSINESS PLANTS ARE BOUND OVER

Fleischman Yeast Company
Among Firms Sent Up—
Expect More Arrests.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—Further developments were expected today in the nation-wide campaign against prohibition violators which was dramatically opened here yesterday when a federal grand jury indicated 156 persons and 31 business firms.

These individuals and business firms, charged with conspiracy to violate the national prohibition law, are alleged to have constituted a giant conspiracy for the illegal diversion of specially denatured government alcohol to bootleg channels.

TOTAL MILLIONS

Profits of this rum ring are reported to have totalled millions of dollars from the sale of vast quantities of alcohol diverted to bootleggers from New York to Los Angeles.

A drastic interpretation of the prohibition law is seen in the indictment at Springfield, Ill., of the Fleischman Yeast company and the Corn Products Refining company, along with 17 reputed bootleggers there.

Officials of the companies here and in other cities today stated that they sold only to reputable concerns and deny charges that they sold to a bootleg trade, either directly or indirectly.

It was predicted by United States Attorney Walter M. Pro-vines of Springfield that indictments will be returned against other yeast making companies in the middle west.

The government contends the manufacturers were responsible for the ultimate usage of the supplies and if court procedure upholds this theory, it was announced here, the government will proceed against manufacturers of stills and other apparatus used in making whisky, wine and beer.

Ninety-six of the individuals indicated here are Chicagoans and five of them are women. They are to be brought to a speedy trial, it was indicated.

CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRY

Meanwhile there was much to indicate the indictments will result in a congressional inquiry and investigations of enforcement offices in New York and in Chicago.

Prohibition Commissioner James Doran, who was visiting in St.
Paul, prepared to come here for an interview with E. C. Yellowley, prohibition administrator in the Chicago district.

His hurried trip is looked upon as being significant in that the investigation that led to the wholesale indictments was conducted by Alexander Jamie, chief special prohibition agent, with operatives sent here from other cities and working independently of the Chicago staff.

BUS OFFICIALS ARE INDICTED

Jury Places Responsibility of Eaton Crash On Operator and Firm.

EATON, O., Feb. 11.—A bus driver and two officials of the Greyhound bus lines stood indicted here today on manslaughter charges when the county grand jury held them responsible for a bus crash which claimed two lives near here Jan. 2.

Whit Spratt, of Indianapolis, owner of O. S. Caesar president, and J. J. Kohler, of Chicago, general manager of the transportation company were the men who were named in the indictments.
Officials of the company told the Public Utilities commission that they have been unable to locate Spratt since he was discharged from an Indianapolis hotel.

The investigation revealed that Spratt had been up all day previous to the crash as he had driven the bus to the Indiana capital on its westward run. He then drove the bus on its return trip.

Thomas Carney, of Fort Wayne, Ind., and Miss Esther Mastara, of Columbus, were the two passengers who were killed.

Important Meets.

Three meetings which are of vast interest to Pickaway-co farmers have been scheduled by County Farm Agent H. Stanley Lewis, the first of which will be held here Thursday.

Arrangements for the annual Pickaway-co steer feeders tour from 1:30 to 3 p. m. This feeding school is the third of a series which

the Buffalo producers cooperative

the type of cattle which the market seeks. Conditions of the market today, as compared to last
in which the class of cattle will sell to an advantage over another class?

Any cattle feeder interested in this school is welcome to attend
and take part in the discussions.
A county wide corn growers
meeting has been arranged for Thursday, Feb. 20, from 10 a. m.
until 3 p. m. This school will be held at the Farm Bureau office in Circleville.

Pickaway-co farmers derive
eight per cent of their farm income from corn. The experience of the past year indicate the fact
warranted in paying some special
attention to seed corn, preparation of soil for the crop and fertilization, if they are anxious to insure their 1930 corn crop returns on a profitable basis.

Dr. J. B. Park of the crops department of Ohio State University will discuss corn breeding. The selection of varieties, the control of
diseases, the importance of good
seed, etc.

J. A. Slipper, soils specialist of Ohio State University will discuss
the preparation of the seed bed,
depth of planting, rate of planting, drilled against checked corn, method of fertilizing the crop, etc.
The seed corn situation should
be a pertinent part of the discussion throughout this program.
Corn growers throughout the county
will be pleased to take advantage of this type of meeting and

Pickaway-co truck growers and
gardeners will hold a vegetable
gardeners school at the Pickaway-co
Farm Bureau home, on Tuesday, February 18. The following pro-
school.

E. R. Lancashire, Horticulture
Dept., Ohio State University.
Crop Insects—M. P. Jones, Entomologist, Ohio State University.
1 p. m. Vegetable Diseases and Their Control—A. L. Piersdorff, Plant Pathologist, Ohio State University.

duction—E. S. Tussing, Prof. Horticultural Dept., Ohio State University.

Proximity to markets and the warm early soils afforded throughout the Scioto Valley are both assets to the truck and market gardener, as well as the farmer who is producing vegetable crops under
tries.

Insect control, disease control,
fertilization and selection of varieties are each factors that must be
met in the production of economic
yields and profitable returns, no matter which phase of gardening
the producer may wish to follow.
Any trucker, gardener, Melon
grower or Potato producer will
find a profitable day awaiting him
if he will arrange to attend this Vegetable Growers School. Every-
one interested is welcome and invited to take advantage of the program.

To $1,167.45 With Circleville Leading.

Pickaway-co chapter, American Red Cross, desires to express its appreciation to Frank A. Lynch, Roll Call chairman, his assistant
chairmen, the army of solicitors
and the newspaper, relative to
their achievements in making the 13th annual Roll Call the success
it was.

The Roll Call amounted to $1,167.45. Of this amount the National chapter received $375.00 and the local chapters $792.45. The amounts collected in Circleville and various townships are as follows: Circleville City, $811.45.
Circleville-twp, $1.00.
Darby-twp, $7.75.
Williamsport and Deercreek-twp, $146.00.

Ashville, $72.10.
Harrison-twp, $5.00.
Jackson-twp, $11.00.
Monroe-twp, $26.00.
Muhlenberg-twp, $4.00.
New Holland, $34.65.
Pickaway-twp, $23.50.
Saltcreek-twp, $6.00.
Walnut-twp, $16.00.
Washington-twp, $3.00.

It is perhaps unfortunate that
the great mass of the public do
American Red Cross and especially
that of the local chapter. Its work is composed of various services for the betterment of mankind, especially for the veterans
of all wars and their dependents.
It assists in straightening out the
home problems, getting evidence
for compensation, obtains necessary hospital treatment and assistance in many other ways to re-
of the Red Cross.

To those who responded so generously and promptly the chapter
extends its grateful thanks. It undoubtedly will be an incentive to others to join the good work in future appeals.

Three Columbus Alleged Sheep
Cincinnati.

William Amos, Homer Jacobs
and William Gaines, Columbus
youths, who were arrested following the theft of sheep from two Pickaway-co farmers, pleaded guilty to a petit larceny indictment returned against them by the January grand jury, and were
each sentenced to the Cincinnati
workhouse for 30 days and fined $200 by Common Pleas Judge J.
W. Adkins.

The three youths were alleged
to have stolen sheep and taken
them to Chillicothe where they
proprietor of a slaughter house
there became suspicious he called
police who arrested two of the youths. Amos was picked up later in Lancaster and jailed under the same charge.

Delegates Hold Plenary Meet-
Men Present.

By HARRY R. FLORY
LONDON, Feb. 11.—The reputation of the submarine as anything
appeared to have been ruined for
all time today when American
and British delegates to the five-
power naval disarmament confer-
with a devastating barrage of hostile criticism.

From sleek prow to submerged
rudder the undersea boat was cas-
and ruthless weapon of warfare,
but also as a positive menace to
the crew assigned to operate it.
Even Japan, which favors retention of the submarine, was forced
unlimited submarine warfare had
brought about maritime tactics
that disgusted the entire world.

the first question taken up by the conference, meeting in plenary
session at St. James' Palace. It was the fourth time the parley
had assembled in full session since
the conference opened with pomp
and pageantry in the House of Lords just three weeks ago.

The meeting was opened by
Prime Minister J. Ramsay Mac-Donald at 11:05 a. m. (6:05 a. m.
Eastern Standard time.) He announced that the first committee
able to announce a solution of the
questions.

He then called upon A. V. Alexander, British first lord of the admiralty, to set forth Britain's
first lord lost no time about
launching into the subject, and almost his first words were a bitter and complete indictment of undersea craft.

ALEXANDER TALKS
"Attention of these vessels," Alexander declared, "will always
constitute the danger of their employment in the hands of an
unscrupulous enemy and will lead
to methods of attack which civilized nations regard with horror."

Admitting that in the last war
maintain submarines in defensive
positions solely, he put forward
an unqualified demand for their
complete abolition, stating that they constituted a definite menace
even to the health and safety of
the crews which operate them.

Speaking on behalf of the United States, Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson then put forward an urgent plea for submarine
abolition, leaving no alternative to removing undersea craft entirely from the fleets of the world.

Denying the contention that
submarines were purely defensive
arms, he declared that to sanction
their use would be a "contradiction
of the purposes for which we
have met."

"The essential objection of the submarine," he said, "is that it is a weapon particularly susceptible to abuse, that it is susceptible of use against merchant ships in
a way that violates alike the laws
of war and the dictates of humanity."

Submarines during the last war,
the American chief delegate declared, "revolted the conscience of
the world," and were directly responsible for having forced the

Mrs. Anna Finkle, Sister-in-
Taken Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Finkle, aged 84, a former resident of Circleville, died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Grace Strait in Columbus. Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m., in the A. J.
Held Co. chapel.

Mrs. Finkle is a sister-in-law of Mrs. Frances Crissinger of W.
Main-st and an aunt of Ike Cris-
singer, both of whom will attend the funeral. Two sons, W. C.
Finkel, Columbus, and John R.
Finkel, Dayton, a brother P. C.
Crissinger and a sister, also survive.

Burial will be in Union cemetery.

Birthday of Great Inventor

February 11, the birthday of Thomas Edison, world-famed inventor, may see the reunion of three old friends, Henry Ford, Thomas Edison and Harvey Firestone. The three friends, who have always felicitated one another on their different achievements through life, are pictured together as they appeared February 11, 1929, when Thomas Edison celebrated his eighty-second birthday.

Joker's Jubilee rehearsals predict that the performance of Wednesday evening at the high school will be replete with tunes
practiced efforts of 35 trained
musicians account for that. The determined air of the speaking
cast "to put this thing over right"
lends double assurance to the fact
already known to those who have seen rehearsals; namely, "We of
the audience certainly are going to
are reasons for this.

As we might say to the judge,
"It all started this way." A group of young people had played almost
enough acts to become active
members of Circleville's troupe of National Thespians. They coveted the honor of belonging to this
largest and highest rated school dramatic society. They proposed this two act Jubilee as a final
demonstration. The troupe director granted their request on condition they produce a show as good as any of equal length with-
in the territory of the honor society. On Wednesday night's presentation rests their hopes for membership in this organization.
You of the audience will realize
how diligently they have worked
should you see them reach their goal shortly after 10 that night.

TWO STARS ILL
Two new members with minor
roles are pleased that the "old hands" trained in Thespian lore were ready and willing to double for them. Measles and tonsillitis removed pledges, Mary May Haswell from her half of a duet and Jinsy Mader from a short speaking part. The former was relieved to remember that Thespian sister, Peggy Courtwright, had practiced with her many times and infact had suggested some of the actions. So now it's Courtwright and Heiskell in a duet "Just You —Just Me." When the cloud of tonsillitis that took Jinsy Mader from the fold cleared away it revealed her understudy had been the oldest Thespian in school. So Jeanne Crowe says Jinsy's scattered lines, and, then, "does her dances, too!"

Besides the entire high school orchestra, the cast contains: Interlocutress, Doris Peters; Josie, Linden Baughman and Jessie, James Brown who are "end men;" Bluetie Blues, Helen Yates; Dumb Intelligence, Jeanne Crowe; Moran, Robert Rector; and Mack Albert Goeller—all Jokers of the Jubilee. Your grandfather would cheerfully forego his usual distaste of travel to secure his Camels if you give him their jokes to beat his windpipe. The orchestra, the instrumentalists, Gaylord Rose and Charles Brown, the chorus, and the vocalists, Peggy Courtwright, Charles Kirkpatrick, Howard Greeno, John Heiskell, Ellen Leist, Robert Rector, and Edwin Haacker make up the music of the Jubilee. Your grandmother will wonder why paw doesn't learn some of the new fangled dances if she hears their music.

The demand for tickets to date has been large. Yet few have reserved their seats. The reservation chart is now open at Wilder's Drug Store. It tempts you with many choice seats. Reservations
cost not a cent.

Methodist Minister At South
Bloomfield Entertains

The Circleville Kiwanis club had
one of its most interesting meetings Monday evening when Rev.
William Alexander, pastor of the Methodist church at South Bloomfield, told the club of his world
travels and his experiences. Never
in the short history of the Kiwanis club has so much merriment prevailed as did Monday evening when Alexander, in his own interesting
way told of his great experiences.

He started at his home in England and went down the African
coast to Cape Horn, telling of his trip. Then he told of the many incidents which occurred in his life in Australia and of the customs
there. He told of New Zealand
and of his trip through the Panama Canal, up the Atlantic coast
to Newport News, where he said he obtained his first glimpses of the United States.

He told of his experiences with the American people and his great love for them. Rev. Alexander's address was very well received and with his great humorous style the evening was turned into more or less a frolic.

Alexander's ability as a speaker has made him in demand in numerous cities as an after dinner speaker.

Frank Wharton, Ashville R. F.
D. and E. F. Schlegel, Ashville, were guests of the club Monday evening.

NO MEETING
There will be no meeting of the Chamber of Commerce this evening, it was announced.

Both Norris and Doherty paid
tribute to his legal brilliance.
They attacked his appointment on
a different ground. Doherty said Hughes was "prejudiced" on many
great questions and declared his appointment was engineered by a
"political clique" that sought to rule the country. Norris said his appointment was a "political football" which detracted from the high ideals of the supreme court.
He added that no man, who resigns from the supreme court to
seek political and financial gains,
should ever be reappointed.

JOHN EMERINE DENIES CHARGE

Man on Parole From Pen Held In Jail—Trego Fails To Talk, Jailed.

John "Shooky" Emerine, who was arrested at the home of his brother, Ralph, off the Adelphi-pk. early Sunday by Sheriff Frank Davis and Deputy Sheriff Carl Porter, following an alleged "party," pleaded not guilty to a charge of possessing implements for the manufacture of intoxicating liquor Monday evening when given a hearing before Judge Brown.

All that the authorities need to prove in Emerine's case is to find him guilty of some criminal offense and he will be returned to the Ohio state penitentiary where he was paroled in December on condition that he leave the county, which he failed to do.

Buck Trego, who was arrested as a result of the same party, pleaded guilty to intoxication but when he refused to answer the questions asked him by Judge Brown he was ordered returned to jail in contempt of court.

Mrs. Saddle Emerine, the third of the trio arrested, has not yet been given a hearing.

OF C. HUGHES IS DEFERRED

Sen. Cole Blease Demands
Taft's Health.

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—Confirmation of Charles Evans Hughes as chief justice of the United States was being held up
in the senate today pending an inquiry by Senator Cole Blease (D)
of S. C., into the health of William Howard Taft, who resigned
the high post last week.

Blease announced he would fight Hughes' confirmation and for the
court if his inquiry showed the
former president's health would
allow him to resume his judicial
robes. Blease initiated the inquiry after blocking confirmation of Hughes.

PROPOSES FIGHT
"I want to learn if there is any hope of Mr. Taft's permanent recovery, said Blease. "If there's
no hope of him going back to the
bench, there's no use of making
any fight, because I have nothing
against Mr. Hughes. I only think my friend, Mr. Taft, was badly treated. If his health will let him return, I propose to make a real fight in the senate to put him back."

"I think his illness is exaggerated. His doctor's reports in the last few days indicate he's getting
along very well and that he never
want to know the truth."

Blease was to confer with Dr.
Francis R. Hagner, Taft's physician. It appeared certain Hagner would tell him Taft can no longer serve upon the federal bench
without endangering his life. Information was obtained by International News Service last week
that Taft's son and daughter influenced his resignation solely in the hope of prolonging his life.

firmation by Senator George W.
Norris (R) of Neb., insurgent
leader, and Henry L. Doherty, utilities magnate, appeared to
have gathered but few converts.
An overwhelming majority of the senate, while not particularly
friendly to Hughes, will favor his
confirmation because of his outstanding brilliance as a lawyer,
and his great success at the bar.

Internationally Known Author Returns to U. S.

Maurice Dekobra, world-famed author, has returned to the United States from a triumphal journey
through Europe. The noted author has several new books which are
graphic descriptions of the coun-

extensive travels. One of the rea-

observation of them.

ing Vessel Reports.

NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—After
two weeks' silence, the missing
steamship William Scoresby with Captain Sir Herbert Wilkins and
three members of the Wilkins Antarctic exploration party aboard, has been heard from, according to a copyrighted dispatch
to the New York American sent
today from Deception Island.

radio station at the island had
received a message from one of
the whalers searching the vast ice sea for the missing ship, stating the Scoresby had been heard from.
No details of the location of the missing vessel were given.

At the base station plans were
made at once to attempt to communicate with the Scoresby by radio. It was presumed Sir Herbert and his party are safe on board the vessel, in which they
sailed to find a taking-off site for the explorer's proposed Ross Sea
flight over the Polar cap.

First attempts to communicate with the Scoresby by radio today were unsuccessful, the dispatch
stated.

Roy Jenkins, Circleville, plead-was bound over to the grand jury

31 BUSINESS PLANTS ARE BOUND OVER

Fleischman Yeast Company

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—Further developments were expected today
in the nation-wide campaign against prohibition violators which
was dramatically opened here yesterday when a federal grand jury indicted 156 persons and 31 business firms.

These individuals and business firms, charged with conspiracy to violate the national prohibition law,
are alleged to have constituted a giant conspiracy for the illegal
diversion of specially denatured government alcohol to bootleg
channels.

TOTAL MILLIONS
Profits of this rum ring are reported to have totalled millions of dollars from the sale of vast quantities of alcohol diverted to bootleggers from New York to Los Angeles.

A drastic interpretation of the prohibition law is seen in the indictment at Springfield, Ill., of the Fleischman Yeast company and the Corn Products Refining company, along with 17 reputed bootleggers there.

Officials of the companies here
and in other cities today stated
that they sold only to reputable
concerns and deny charges that they sold to a bootleg trade, either directly or indirectly.

It was predicted by United States Attorney Walter M. Pro-
vines of Springfield that indictments will be returned against
other yeast making companies in the middle west.

The government contends the
manufacturers were responsible for the ultimate usage of the supplies and if court procedure up-
holds this theory, it was announced
here, the government will proceed against manufacturers of stills
and other apparatus used in making whisky, wine and beer.

Ninety-six of the individuals indicated here are Chicagoans and
five of them are women. They are to be brought to a speedy trial,
it was indicated.

CONGRESSIONAL INQUIRY
Meanwhile there was much to indicate the indictments will result in a congressional inquiry and
investigations of enforcement offices in New York and in Chicago.

NEW LEX. INVADES C. A. C. FOR THURSDAY ENCOUNTER

New Lexington's fraternity strength of the court. The game court team, made up of courtment at Columbus Sunday night in none of whom live in New Lexington, will be the C. A. C. opponent on the local court Thursday evening, and will come here with but one idea in mind, that of drubbing the Club tossers for the second time in a year.

That task may be one that's impossible, for the type of ball the Club is playing at the present time is just about unbeatable, and unless New Lex boasts of a team which measures over the six foot mark in height, the Club holds a mighty good chance to drub the New Lexington boys.

STARS IN LINEUP

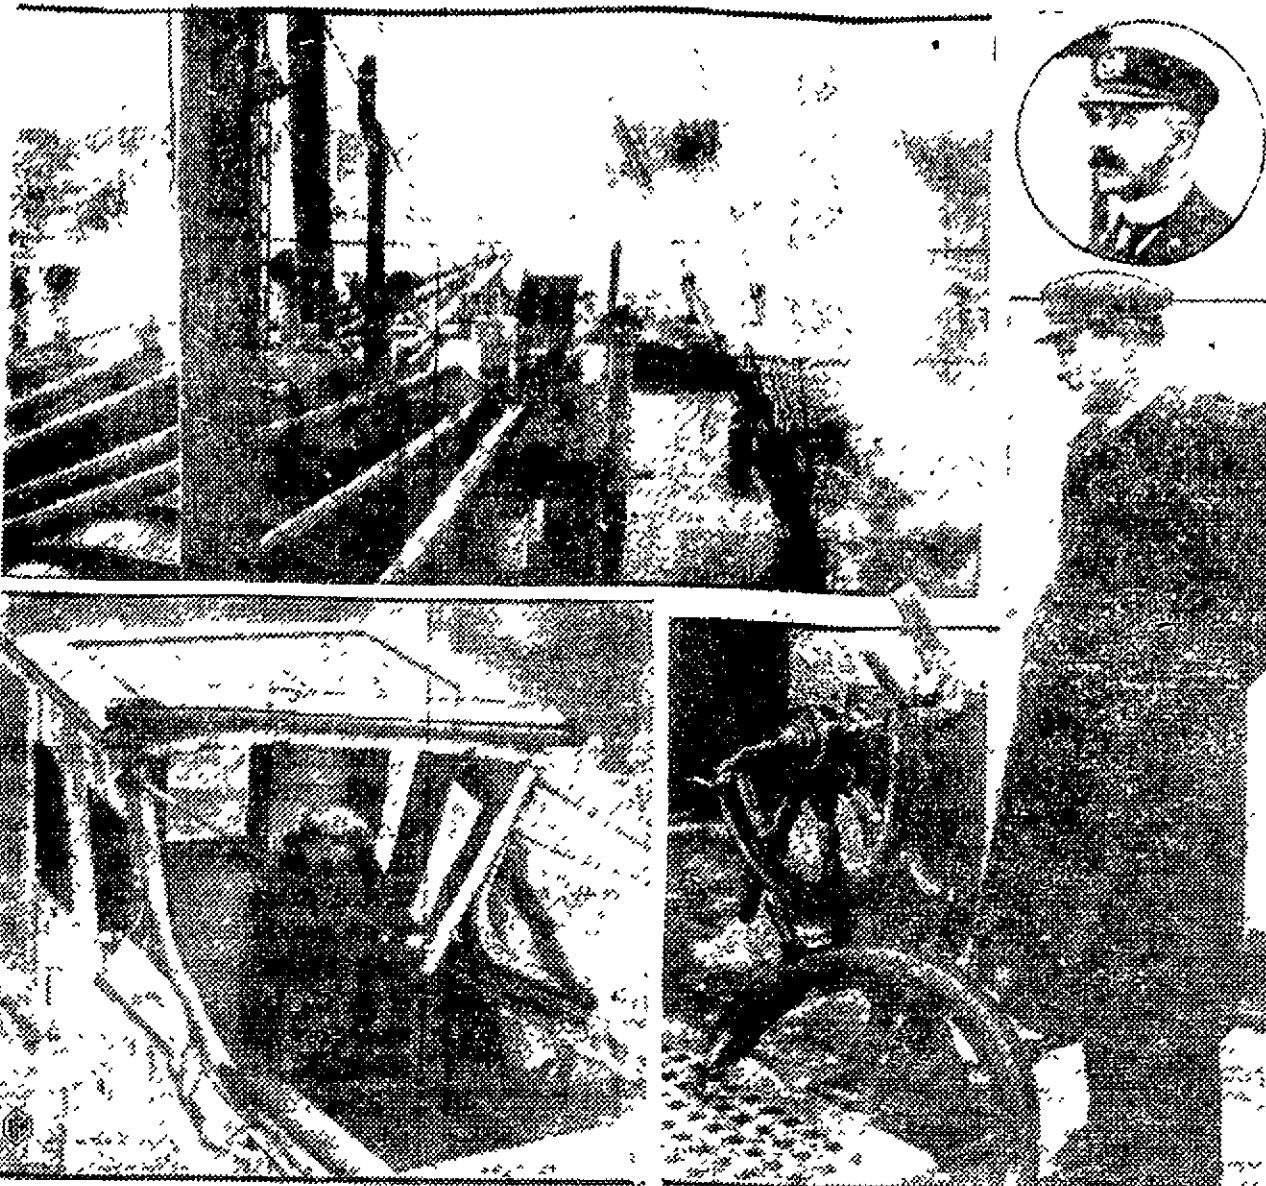

The visitors have several star performers in their lineup including two guards who were on the national consolation high school championship team. Zanesville's Blue Devils, several years ago. They are Freddie Lowe and Bonfield, and in these two boys and the New Lexington center, Harrop, formerly of Muskingum college, the strength of the fraternity team is centered.

The Club team looked terrible in the first half of their game at New Lexington when they permitted their men to run at large and to score goals from tipoff plays with no trouble at all. Then, too, it has been said that officiating through this contest was not quite what it should have been with the result that the Club was not given anything it shouldn't have had.

Scars of Battle with Raging Atlantic

As the S. S. Veendam, of the Holland-American Line, limped into port at New York bearing the scars of the desperate struggle with the Atlantic in one of the worst storms in recent years. (Upper row) A giant wave breaking over the bow caused injury to 20 of the crew. The pilot house and lifeboats were smashed. Capt. R. GORDONS LOSE ROUGH BATTLE

All New Holds and Tricks Used In Effort To Prevent Scoring.

Gordon Tire basket tossers met defeat at Darbyville against the All-Stars Monday evening when a new rule in basketball went into effect, especially for this one evening in particular. The Gordons say that they were never informed that when a basketball player dribbles into the basket an opponent is permitted to hang around his neck or to try to hogtie his arms behind him, and on numerous occasions to come through with beautiful roll blocks that would come mighty near blocking a grid star All-American.

Well, anyway that is what happened and when the smoke, or rather the dust of a mighty nice football game had settled down the Gordons were defeated 33-30.

The first period was close and hard fought and at the end of the session the score stood 10-11.

DARBYVILLE LEADS

At the start of the second half Howard White evaded his captors long enough to score enough goals to put the Gordons in the lead again, but when Pitt connected for several long heaves the Gordons went ahead and held their lead.

Howard White was easily the star of the contest with nine buckets and a free throw, but according to his teammates he should have been permitted a dozen free throws which were turned into jump balls.

George Stoker refereed.

Wilkins Missing 7 Days; Fear for Safety Grows

The Antarctic has drawn a mysterious curtain of silence about Sir Hubert Wilkins. The Scoresby, with Captain Wilkins and his entire personnel aboard, is somewhere in the vast sea of broken ice to the south of Deception Island, searching for a runway for the take-off of the proposed sea flight across the polar cap.

COLD MEANS NOTHING TO OLD "SEA DOG"

Mea of the sea can't coddle their colds. They catch them in a jiffy. So can you—and without "dope"—with a simple compound that just knocks out all that aches, feverish feeling or that watery-eyed, sore-nosed condition that makes a person feel so thoroughly miserable.

Next time exposure to wet and cold has set you to sniffing, take Pope's Cold Compound. Simple little tablets, but how they kill a cold! Pope's Cold Compound is only 35c.

How They Grew Thin

You will be surprised, if you look around, at how many people have grown thin in late years. It is evident that some new method has come into very widespread use. It has been found that a weak gland is a great cause of obesity. So modern physicians have been fighting that cause, without starvation diets.

A book in each box of Marmola tells you how and why it acts. The formula is given. Go try this remarkable, this natural means. Ask your druggist today for a $1 box of Marmola. You owe that to yourself.

DARBYVILLE IS GRANT VICTIM

Bull Dogs Go Down Under Avalanche of 36-28—Rhoades Scored 19.

The Grant Flying Clouds won their 16th basketball game of the season at Darbyville Monday evening when they defeated the Bull Dogs there in a thrilling contest. The score was 36 to 28 and the game was fought throughout.

The Clouds scored the first points of the game and led for a short time but Darbyville gradually crept up until they drew abreast. Largely through the long heaving of R. Rhoades. The half ended with Darbyville leading 18-17.

Wefer and Glitt got hot in the third period and the Clouds outscored their opponents 10 to 2.

RHODES HIGH.

The feature of the game was the Clouds' defense which forced the Bull Dogs to shoot from long range. R. Rhoades was the star of the game with nine buckets, and a free throw. Nearly all his goals were from back of the foul line.

Glitt led the Clouds with 14 points.

TIGERS MEET Y DAY QUINT

Battle Which Occurred Here When Teams Met To Draw Fans Wednesday.

A trip to Columbus Wednesday afternoon to meet Y Day school's rough and tumble basket tossers is the menu for Coach J. M. Guthrie's Red and Black warriors for the first part of this week.

The game is scheduled to start at 2 p. m. and a large following of local fans is expected to follow the team.

The Y Day game here was the first victory the Tigers had gained during the season and that contest was won after one of the hardest battles ever staged here.

The score was 20-15 but the fact that that game was close didn't have a bit of bearing on the type of battle these Y Day boys put up to win their contest.

Curley Alsford, Y Day floor captain, will be remembered as one of the fiercest and fiercest courtsters who have appeared here this year and with his willingness to start trouble it is not known just what kind of a sham-battle the Tigers are in for Wednesday.

BYRD SUPPLY SHIP AGROUND

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The Eleanor Bolling, supply ship for the Antarctic expedition headed by Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd ran aground near Dunedin, New Zealand, according to a Central News Dispatch from Auckland.

The dispatch added that the commander of the ship hoped to refloat her shortly.

The Eleanor Bolling recently failed in an attempt to find passage through the South Polar ice pack to Little America where Admiral Byrd and his companions are located. Admiral Byrd then ordered the ship by radio, to return to Dunedin while the City of New York, flagship of the expedition, continued to try to find a way through the ice.

NEW LEX. INVADES C. A. C. FOR THURSDAY ENCOUNTER

New Lexington's fraternity court team, made up of courtment none of whom live in New Lexington, will be the C. A. C. opponent on the local court Thursday evening, and will come here with but one idea in mind, that of drubbing the Club tossers for the second time in a year.

That task may be one that's impossible, for the type of ball the Club is playing at the present time is just about unbeatable, and unless New Lex boasts of a team which measures over the six foot mark in height, the Club holds a mighty good chance to drub the New Lexington boys.

The visitors have several star performers in their lineup including two guards who were on the national consolation high school championship team, Zanesville's Blue Devils, several years ago. They are Freddie Lowe and Bonifield, and in these two boys and the New Lexington center, Harrop, formerly of Muskingum college, the strength of the fraternity team is centered.

The Club team looked terrible in the first half of their game at New Lexington when they permitted their men to run at large and to score goals from tipoff plays with no trouble at all. Then, too, it has been said that officiating through this contest was not quite what it should have been with the result that the Club was not given anything it shouldn't have had.

LOOKED GOOD SUNDAY
The C. A. C. team will be in tact for this game with the full strength of the court. The game at Columbus Sunday night in which the locals drubbed the Fountain Drug All-Stars was one of the keenest games to watch that the Club has played this year. When a basketball player like Bill Hunt tosses out the compliment which he did on the Club passing when he said it was much faster than the Columbus "pro" team's tossing, things must have been on the up and up in this game.

Two good preliminaries have also been scheduled. The curtain-raiser will see the Grant Flying Clouds facing the Walnut Tigers with the local team holding an advantage which should win them victory.

CAMBRIDGE HERE

The game which will precede the Club encounter will see the Gordon Tires and a Cambridge quintet on the mat with the result of the game a matter of time.

Nothing is known of the Cambridge team except that it's players evidently like to travel. The trip from Cambridge is a long one and taking into consideration that there is no stipulation on this end of the deal, the Cambridge players must love to play basketball.

The curtain raiser starts at 7 o'clock.

GORDONS LOSE ROUGH BATTLE

All New Holds and Tricks Used In Effort To Prevent Scoring.

Gordon Tire basket tossers met defeat at Darbyville against the All-Stars Monday evening when a new rule in basketball went into effect, especially for this one evening in particular. The Gordons say that they were never informed that when a basketball player dribbles into the basket an opponent is permitted to hang around his neck, or to try to hog-tie his arms behind him, and on numerous occasions to come through with beautiful roll blocks that would come mighty near rating a grid star All-American.

The first period was close and hard fought and at the end of the session the score stood 10-all.

DARBYVILLE LEADS

After a few minutes of the second period, Walker connected for several long shots which gave his team a lead of 22-15 at halftime.

At the start of the second half, Howard White evaded his captor long enough to score enough goals to put the Gordons in the lead again, but when Pitt connected for several long heaves the Gordons went ahead and held their lead.

Howard White was easily the star of the contest with nine buckets and a free throw, but according to his teammates he should have been permitted a dozen free throws which were turned into jump balls.

George Stoker refereed.

You will be surprised, if you look around, at how many people have grown thin in late years. It is evident that some new method has come into very wide use. It has been found that a weak gland is a great cause of obesity. So modern physicians have been fighting that cause, without starvation diets.

This right method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for 22 years—millions of boxes of them. Now in almost every tire the delightful results are apparent.

A book in each box of Marmola tells you how and why it acts. The formula is given. Go try this remarkable, this natural means. Ask your druggist today for a $1 box of Marmola. You owe that to yourself.

MAYOR OF CHI TO COOPERATE

Big Bill Thompson Brings Dim Ray of Hope To Fundless Chicagoans.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11.—A dim ray of hope for emergency relief was seen today on Chicago's chaotic financial horizon when it was learned that Mayor William Hale Thompson had elected to cooperate with the Strawn citizen's relief committee. The mayor's refusal to cooperate with the committee headed by Silas H. Strawn has paralyzed negotiations for tax loans for which the committee in an effort to procure emergency funds with which to pay 40,000 employees who have gone without their pay checks for nearly two months. The county today began issuing charity food, clothing and fuel to the most needy. Nearly a score of families already have applied for aid at the charity headquarters, it was stated by Joseph Moss, director of the county bureau of public welfare. The unpaid army of workers now numbers 43,836 persons and by the middle of this month unpaid salaries will total $12,760,568. Many are approaching serious financial straits. A group of political scientists has been analyzing the Chicago financial muddle and within a week, it was revealed today, will be ready to present a program for emergency relief. They are also working on recommendations designed to prevent a recurrence of the crisis.

Toughest of Old Hang-On Coughs Go

Why send a boy to do man's work? Sweet, sugary cough syrups may help a simple cough, but when you are traveling along towards the cemetery with a stubborn tight old cough that lingers on and on with the most persistent devilishness, then you need a real cough medicine—and the real cough medicine is Broncholine Emulsion. The cough may be so tantalizing that you can't sleep much, and your days may be filled with rackling torture, yet that is the bid of a cough that Broncholine likes to tackle and conquer. Many times a few doses stop the tickling and loosen the phlegm and you can depend upon a bottle to make a two month cough quit cold and disappear. Ask Hamilton & Ryan or any wide-awake druggist for a bottle of Broncholine Emulsion. There is no dope in it—or chloroform, or a couple of teaspoonfuls will usually end any ordinary cough.

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*

By refraining from over-indulgence, if you would maintain the modern figure of fashion

Women who prize the modern figure with its subtle, seductive curves—men who would keep that trim, proper figure, eat healthfully but not immoderately. Banish excessiveness—eliminate abuses. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. When tempted to excess, when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, reach for a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence if you would maintain the lithe, youthful, modern figure.

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette a man ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat purifies and so "TOASTING" not only removes impurities but adds to the flavor and improves the taste.

MAYOR OF CHI

Big Bill Thompson Brings Dim Ray of Hope To Fundless Chicagoans.

CHICAGO, Feb. 11—A dim ray of hope for emergency relief was seen today on Chicago's chaotic financial horizon when it was learned that Mayor William Hale Thompson had elected to cooperate with the Strawn citizen's relief committee. The mayor's refusal to cooperate with the committee headed by Silas H. Strawn has paralyzed negotiations for tax loans for which the committee in an effort to procure emergency funds with which to pay 40,000 employees who have gone without their pay checks for nearly two months. The county today began issuing charity food, clothing and fuel to the most needy.

Nearly a score of families already have applied for aid at the charity headquarters, it was stated by Joseph Moss, director of the county bureau of public welfare. The unpaid army of workers now numbers 43,836 persons and by the middle of this month unpaid salaries will total $13,760,568. Many are approaching serious financial straits.

A group of political scientists has been analyzing the Chicago financial muddle and within a week, it was revealed today, will be ready to present a program for emergency relief. They are also working on recommendations designed to prevent a recurrence of the crisis.

Toughest of Old
Hang-On Coughs Go

Why send a boy to do man's work? Sweet, sugary cough syrups may help a simple cough, but when you are traveling along towards the cemetery with a stubborn tight old cough that lingers on and on with the most persistent devilishness, then you need a real cough medicine—and the real destroyer of tough old coughs is Broncholine Emulsion.

The cough may be so tantalizing that you can't sleep nights and your days may be filled with racking torture, yet that's just the kind of a cough that Broncholine likes to tackle and conquer.

Many times a few doses will stop the hacking and loosen things up and you can depend upon half a bottle to make a two months' cough quit cold and disappear.

Ask Hamilton & Ryan or any wideawake druggist for a bottle of Broncholine Emulsion. There's no dope in it—or chloroform, and a couple of teaspoonfuls will usually end any ordinary cough.

DIPLOMATIC WETNESS

The British Embassy is going wet when Sir Esme Howard leaves. The new ambassador, Sir Ronald Lindsey, is expected to restore the old status, allowing his staff to import liquor and use it without apology, as is done by the rest of the diplomatic corps.

Drys regret this. But it is to be expected. Senators may seize the opportunity to twist the tail of the British Lion and the Demon Rum at the same time, but there is no special cause for oratory. The British embassy will be within its rights. An embassy, by universal agreement among nations, is a part of the territory of the nation they represent. Britons or Frenchmen or Italians or Venezuelans or Chinese may eat and drink what they like in their diplomatic headquarters at Washington, as our representatives may in foreign capitals.

Our government will do well if it dries up the American part of the capital.

BETTER TICKERS

New high speed stock tickers are being installed in New York. The brokerage houses all have them and the news agencies necessarily follow suit. The telegraph companies say they are "preparing for the biggest market in history."

It was evident last year that Wall Street needed bigger and better tickers. Some days they ran an hour or two behind current transactions on the floor of the exchange. The new instruments are said to be capable of handling sales of 15,000,000 shares a day.

Thus it is evident that we're all set for prosperity again. It will be a greater year than ever—if stock speculation can make it so. Presumably the Wall Street clerks will get their usual Christmas bonus next winter. What will the rest of us get?

FOOD FOR STARVING GAME

Almost every winter there are stories from one section of the country or another about the suffering of game birds and animals because of lack of food in prolonged cold weather or after excessive snow fall. It may be the wild creatures of the national parks in the West or the turkeys and deer of the east.

Authorities in Pennsylvania recently solved the problem of getting food to the state's wards in the mountainous sections near Harrisburg. They sent out an airplane loaded with corn and apples and other delicacies dear to wild game of the region. These things were dropped from the plane in various places. More food will be scattered in other sections soon.

Perhaps many of the animals saved now from starvation will be killed by hunters during the next season, but that is not the thought to dwell on. Kindness to animals is worth while at any time and for any purpose.

City managers, it appears, are all right when the politicians let them manage.

"MASTER of MONEY" BY ROY VICKERS

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE.

ALAN BRENNAWAY, 35, and handsome, has made a fortune in Mexico. He loves Shirley Dane, young, society girl, and, upon his return to New York, proposes to her. She refuses, saying she loves someone else. At a reception, Alan meets Mr. Cynaz, financial shark, whom he distrusts. Later he receives a mysterious card that Roger Kelton, young lawyer, with whom Shirley's inheritance is invested, is bankrupt.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER VII.

"THERE will be no action for libel. It isn't a libel. God help me, it's true—thanks to my father."

Alan had risen from his chair. He was staring down at Kelton. Kelton was sitting now with his face buried in his hands. If it was a theatrical pose it was unconsciously so; but Alan found time to wish Kelton's unconscious card that Roger Kelton, young lawyer, with whom Shirley's inheritance is invested, is bankrupt.

"You're raving, Kelton. If you have—I hate to use the word—embellishment what can your father have to do with it?"

"I haven't embezzled a penny," Kelton's voice was thick. "Believe that or not as you like, Brennaway—you will soon know. There is no question of a criminal charge being laid against me, personally. All the same, the firm is now about to go bankrupt."

"I don't follow," said Alan impatiently.

Kelton removed his hands and stared at the floor.

"I didn't know for certain until about a week ago, but I began to suspect about three months after my father's death. As it is—I shall leave the bankruptcy court without a stain on my character—except the stain that will result from being the bankrupt son of a crook."

"Do you mean to tell me—"

"It's asking you a lot to believe it, isn't it?" It took me a long time to swallow it—nearly a year, but—the securities have gone. Such reserve as was left was slipping away now. "Even now when I think of him I find myself thinking of his kindness. God, how he deceived me!"

"The figures show that for twenty years he had been swindling our clients. I've been educated on stolen money. The clothes I'm wearing are stolen—the very food I've been eating."

For several seconds Alan could say nothing. The postcard had not prepared him for this. He had thought of it as an act of malice on the part of a mentally feeble man with a grievance. The conception of Kelton and Rood fraudulently bankrupt still seemed ridiculous. And what could he say to young Kelton?

"It's no good dwelling on the personal side of it," he said presently. "If he was a good father—while he was alive."

"If he was?" The distraught young face was ravaged with bitterness. "Look at my inheritance! Oh, I am no moralist—don't think that, Brennaway. But even the ordinary crook has some kind of feeling for his son. Oh, I don't

"Well . . . My father died suddenly, you know. I had asked her the day before. We could hardly announce it then. We agreed to wait for a bit—not necessarily the usual year. And now she—well, of course, she's waiting for me to ask her for a formal announcement—she's really in a false position."

"She'll stick to you if she's worth anything, Kelton."

"It isn't only a question of sticking to me. She would do that if I would allow her."

"I quite see that you will feel bound to release her."

"Of course. But that's not my chief worry about her—I tell you, I have not even thought much about losing her."

"What then?"

"To pay for it. And that I'm damned if I'll do."

Alan grunted. Kelton got up. He was obviously scrambling back to his first manner—the manner that Alan could not quite like.

"Somehow you have made me talk when I ought to have shut up. It's an impertinence on my part. I apologize. Thanks for listening, Brennaway, but you had better leave me. I shall file my petition in bankruptcy at once."

Alan stared out of the window.

"How much are you in for altogether?"

"Now that you ask me—I really don't know. I stopped counting at about $250,000—the thing had become fantastic. Here's the list, if you care to add it up."

Solitary in His Rank

There is only one "cornet" in the United States army. He is a member of the headquarters troop, Fifty second Cavalry brigade, Philadelphia. The reason for this one assignment is that the history of the regiment goes back to the Revolutionary war, and at that time this regiment had a cornet. According to the national defense act, the regiment may retain this privilege. The grade is between that of an enlisted man and an officer.

Atmosphere and Air

If all space were full of stationary air the motion of the earth through it at the rate of 19 miles a second would produce the same effect as if the earth were standing still and the air moving at the rate of 19 miles a second. But there is no air in interplanetary space. The atmosphere of the earth is a part of the earth and moves along with the solid part under the action of the same forces that keep the solid part in motion.

Christening Customs

Etiquette says that in other days of stricter observance a baby was baptized in the Catholic and High Episcopal church on the first or at least second Sunday after its birth. But today the christening is usually delayed at least until the young mother is up and about again. Often it is put off for months, and in some denominations children need not be christened until they are several years old. The usual age is from two to six months.

Right Living Pays Health Dividends

Authority, Explaining the Functions of the Gall-Bladder, Urges Wise Eating and Exercise.

By R. S. COPELAND, M. D.
U. S. Senator from New York.
Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

IN THESE modern times the poor old liver is not blamed, as it used to be, for at least half the human ills. It is just as important as ever, of course, but less is said about it.

The liver is a gland, the largest gland in the body. While it varies in shape and size, usually it weighs from three to five pounds. This organ is located in the upper portion of the abdominal cavity, on the right side. It secretes a fluid which is called bile.

The preparation of bile and its delivery to the intestinal tract in proper quantity and quality are among the many marvels of our existence.

Out from the liver run two small tubes, which quickly unite into one. Very soon this passage-way is opened into by another, the latter being the canal which drains the gall-bladder. The duct formed in this way is called the "common duct," or the "bile duct."

The common duct is three or four inches long. It opens and discharges into the "duodenum," that part of the intestinal tract which immediately joins the stomach. Any surplus of the bile which is not needed is stored up in the sac known as the gall-bladder. This pouch lies on the under side of the right lobe of the liver.

As you see, the arrangement I have described is pretty complicated. In consequence, the liver region is liable to get out of order. If we lived as we should, perhaps it would never get out of order. But we don't live right. We eat the wrong foods and do harm by overeating the good ones. Too many people drink alcoholic beverages to excess. Many fail to exercise properly.

Out of these abuses come disturbances of the common duct and the gall-bladder. Among these is inflammation of the gall-bladder or rather of the bile duct and gall-bladder. In its mild form this is known as "catarrh of the bile duct." It is a frequent trouble. Just as a common cold causes congestion and swelling of the mucous membrane of the nose, so will congestion in this region cause swelling of the common duct. As a result the bile is dammed up, its proper channel of escape being closed. The bile may be absorbed and carried by the blood to every part of the body. That is what produces the peculiar yellow color called jaundice.

Eskimo Vocabulary

The Eskimos speak one language from easternmost Greenland to farthest Alaska, as do also a few hundred people in Siberia, on the other side of the Bering straits. In order to get along reasonably well, an Eskimo must have at the tip of his tongue a much larger active vocabulary than that of an average business man who speaks English.

Theatres

AT THE CLIFTONA

The Cliftona theatre announces that Tuesday and Wednesday its feature attraction will bring Corinne Griffith to the audible screen in her first dialog picture, "Lilies of the Field," directed by Alexander Korda. In this latest First National and Vitaphone production Miss Griffith is supported by an exceptionally fine cast including Ralph Forbes, John Loder, Ely Southern, May Boley, Rita La Roy, Jean Barry, Betty Boyd, Virginia Bruce, Wilfred Noy and Teneb Holtz.

"Lilies of the Field" is a brilliant comedy-drama from the pen of William Hurlbut, author of "Bride of the Lamb," "Chivalry," "Fighting Hope," "Engaged" and other well known plays.

The story presents Miss Griffith in the role of a society woman unjustly divorced by her husband who is forced to earn her living as a show girl in a Broadway cabaret, where she mingles with a group of gold diggers who attempt to draw her into their easy-going manners and morals. Although there are several tense dramatic situations which give the star ample opportunity for emotional acting, there are also many comedy sequences of back-stage life.

AT THE GRAND

Conway Tearle is a silent screen star who has just made his talking picture debut in "Gold Diggers of Broadway," Warner Bros.' 100 per cent natural color, talking, singing and dancing Vitaphone picture now showing at the Grand theatre. He proves himself among the most adept of talking picture actors due to his training on the speaking stage before he ever went to Hollywood.

Mr. Tearle plays leading male role in "Gold Diggers of Broadway," with Nancy Welford in the leading feminine role. Other principal parts are played by Ann Pennington, Winnie Lightner, Lilyan Tashman, Gertrude Short.

What Is a White Elephant?

Webster says "A quadruped of India, etc." and to some folks that's the only definition—But to concerns like CRIST'S "White Elephants" are items of merchandise which are out of place in an up to date stock—they're out of date in style, soiled, off-size and the less popular patterns.

In most stores you'll find them under the counters, coming up for air once a year at inventory when they have one look at the sunlight and back they go, hoping someone, sometime, will ask for them.

Out they come in our WHITE ELEPHANT SALE—and they're yours for a song almost. We threw away the invoice records and marked them so that they will be grabbed up quickly.

Sale Lasts 10 Days.

FEBRUARY FLURRIES

There are no statistics available on the subject and yet it is a recognized fact that a large number of gangsters die from shooting pains.

Speaking of shooting—Cupid will be doing the bow and arrow act Friday. You may not believe it—but we have a number of Valentine suggestions at our store, which will please the recipient a hundred times more than all the lace-paper creations in the world.

Mrs. Josephine Roth says there may be a lot of famous days in February, but the most famous day in her opinion is February 4, the day we set her Estate Mistress.

Which is a pretty poor excuse according to Mrs. Will Cady who recently bought one of the new Estate Gas Ranges. Less work, less gas, less attention and perfect cooking and baking results—that's Mrs. Cady's opinion of the Estate Range endorsed by many other local women.

NOT FOR SALE—yet Hickory Porch Furniture is what we have in mind and we mention it now to remind you where to get it when summer comes.

And before we forget it—Refurnishing Time is not far off. It might be a good idea to check over the things your home needs and come in to see the many furnishings on display.

Dumgard—"Did you hear that Jim got poisoned eating chicken?" Dumjohn—"Croquettes?" Dumgard—"Not yet; but he's pretty sick."

Did you get it? We had to read it twice.

Don't try to grow your troubles now. You're apt to poison them.

Spring goods are now arriving daily. All departments are brightening up with the newest shades and colors in rugs and upholstery materials. Some new Axminster rugs have just arrived that are the very latest in design and colors. In 9x12 size, we have some for $207 (cash) that are deep, warm, seamless, and heavy. These make excellent rugs for the living room. And then, we have others that sell as low as $47.00 that are well worth the money. For a lower priced Axminster we have a quality that sells for $12.75. These are seamless and of very good quality. If you are thinking of purchasing a new rug this spring, why not drop in and see these new patterns? We'll be your selection for you for later delivery for a small down payment.

And now, you dread facing the prospect of a winter storm? That's what Heatrola is ready to do. It's the warmest, most reliable heat source you can find for only $25 down and $5 per week.

HOMER HANDY'S HINT

When you use gasoline for heating your house, put the residue down the kitchen sink, followed by boiling water. This process will cut all grease deposits that may have gathered and give a thorough cleaning to the pipes.

and by Sept. 1st, you'll own a large size Heatrola, paid for at the cash price. Then, you'll be all set for winter.

"Look here now Harold," said a father to his little son who was naughty, "if you don't say your prayers you won't go to heaven." "I don't want to go to heaven," sobbed the boy; "I want to go with you and mother." "Oh, my—What could he mean?"

Saturday afternoon one of our good friends, who resides out on R. F. D. No. 6, called at the store and asked for a large chiffonier. We sold her a large high-boy, with five large drawers and two smaller ones, all in butt walnut front, for the small price of $25.00. We mention this just to tell you that the original price of this piece was $42.50. Why the big cut in price? Well, it was just a "White Elephant" to us. It was an odd piece that we wanted to move out. Why don't you drop in and see if you can find one of those large eared animals that you can use?

And now comes one Chas. Mead, 310 Logan St., who deposes and saith that his house was more comfortable this winter than any previous winter in the last twenty years, thanks to the Heatrola purchased of us last fall. He says that the Estate Heatrola Man, over W.L.W., tells the truth when he says—"See your Heatrola dealer, he'll make things hot for you." Yea, verily, we're that guy.

Fifth-st, of that city.

JUDGE BROWN IS SPEAKER
Speaking before the Von Bora society of the Trinity Lutheran congregation Monday night, Judge E. A. Brown, chose for his subject, "My Experiences with Girls as Probate Judge." The informal speech contained many incidents among the delinquent girls of this locality, and unfolded a number of tales that are surprising, to have occurred in Circleville.

The accounts the speaker offered were filled with poignant human interest, and his listeners were enthusiastic in their praise and applause. More than 50 members, with 15 additional guests attended the meeting.

Miss Ethel Stein, president of the Von Bora Society presided at the business session which preceded Judge Brown's talk, and the social hour. During this time Mrs. Karl Herrmann had charge of the comic valentine contest. In this humorous game, six of the Von Bora members appeared as comic valentines. Later the members were called upon to guess the identity of the comics.

What Is a White Elephant?

Webster says "A quadruped of India, etc." and to some folks that's the only definition—But to concerns like CRIST'S "White Elephants" are items of merchandise which are out of place in an up to date stock—they're out of date in style, soiled, off-size and the less popular patterns.

In most stores you'll find them under the counters, coming up for air once a year at inventory when they have one look at the sunlight and back they go, hoping someone, sometime, will ask for them.

Out they come in our WHITE ELEPHANT SALE—and they're yours for a song almost. We threw away the invoice records and marked them so that they will be grabbed up quickly.

There are no statistics available on the subject and yet it is a recognized fact that a large number of gangsters die from shooting pains.

Speaking of shooting—Cupid will be doing the bow and arrow act Friday. You may not believe it—but we have a number of Valentine suggestions at our store, which will please the recipient a hundred times more than all the lace-paper creations in the world.

Mrs. Josephine Roth says there may be a lot of famous days in February, but the most famous day in her opinion is February 4, the day we set her Estate Healtrola.

Which is a pretty poor excuse according to Mrs. Will Cady who recently bought one of the new Estate Gas Ranges. Less work, less gas, less attention and perfect cooking and baking results—that's Mrs. Cady's opinion of the Estate, heartily endorsed by many other local women.

NOT FOR SALE—yet. Hickory Porch Furniture is what we have in mind and we mention it now to remind you where to get it when summer comes.

Dumgard—"Did you hear that Jim got poisoned eating chicken?" Dumjohn—"Croquettes?" Dumgard—"Not yet; but he's pretty sick."

Don't try to drown your troubles now. You're apt to poison them.

'Spring goods are now arriving daily. All departments are brightening up with the newest shades and colors in rugs and upholstery materials. Some new Axminster rugs have just arrived that are the very latest in design and colors. In 9x12 size, we have some at $59.37 (cash) that are closely woven, seamless, and heavy pile. These make excellent rugs for the living room. And then, we have others that sell as low as $47.00 (cash) that are well worth the money. For a lower priced Axminster, we have a quality that sells for $32.75. These are seamless and of very good quality. If you are thinking of purchasing a new rug this spring, why not drop in and see these new patterns? We'll hold your selection for you for later delivery, for a small down payment.

And in case you dread facing two more months of cold weather, remember that Healtrola is ready to circulate June warmth in every nook and corner of your home, for only $25 down and $5 per week

HOMER HANDY'S HINT

Whenever you use gasoline for cleaning purposes, pour the residue down the kitchen sink, followed by boiling water. This process will cut all grease deposits that may have gathered and give a thorough cleaning to the pipes.

and by Sept. 1st, you'll own a large size Healtrola, paid for at the cash price. Then, you'll be all set for winter.

"Look here now Harold," said a father to his little son who was naughty, "if you don't say your prayers you won't go to heaven." "I don't want to go to heaven," sobbed the boy; "I want to go with you and mother." (Oh, my—What could he mean?)

Saturday afternoon, one of our good friends, who resides out on R. F. D. No. 6, called at the store and asked for a large chiffonier. We sold her a large high-boy, with five large drawers and two smaller ones, all in butt walnut front, for the small price of $25.00. We mention this just to tell you that the original price of this piece was $42.50. Why the big cut in price? Well, it was just a "White Elephant" to us. It was an odd piece that we wanted to move out. Why don't you drop in and see if you can find one of those large eared animals that you can use?

And now comes one Chas. Mead, 310 Logan St., who depose and saith that his house was more comfortable this winter than any previous winter in the past twenty years, thanks to the Healtrola purchased of us last fall. He says that the Estate Healtrola Man, over WLW, tells the truth when he says—"See your Healtrola dealer, he'll make things hot for you." Yea, verily, we're that guy.
